

PIANO LESSONS

Lessons: Tuesdays 14:00-18:00 - Room E012

Once again this year, we are offering piano lessons (individual) aimed at stimulating interest in and knowledge of the classical repertoire.

The new teacher is Maestro Enrico Camerini, whom you may know from his numerous concerts in Rome, about which we regularly provide information in our notice boards.

Enrico Camerini is a conservatory teacher and concert performer, as well as having a deep knowledge of symphonic, operatic, and chamber music.

Lessons will take place on Tuesdays from 14:00 to 18:00 hrs and will last 45 minutes each.

FEES:

Package of 110€ for 3 classes (valid for one month)

Possibility to buy an additional 4th class at 30€

For those who wish to have a first introductory class, the fee is 35€
Lessons will begin upon reaching a min. number of 3 subscriptions.

Maestro Enrico Camerini

speaks English and Italian, and is happy to give piano lessons or general music lessons (harmony, theory, general musicianship) to all levels.

For information and registration, please contact FAO Staff Coop: Ext. 53142 / fao-staff-coop@fao.org