The new ballet season of the Opera House in Rome goes on in continuity with recent years, strengthening the work of enhancing ballet culture carried out by the director of the Corps de Ballet, Eleonora Abbagnato.

It starts with Don Quixote with choreography by Laurent Hilaire. Based on the novel by Miguel de Cervantes, the ballet is presented with costumes designed by Francesco Zito, a guarantee of elegance and charm. All the vivacity, vigour, gaiety and romanticism of this version are entrusted to the skill and interpretation, in the roles of the love-struck protagonists Kitri and Basilio, of international guests such as Isabella Boylston and Daniel Camargo who will dance on 18, 20, 22, 23 (8 pm) December, Iana Salenko and Osiel Gouneo who will dance on 29 and 30 (8 pm) December. Orchestra, Étoiles, Principal Dancers, Soloists and Corps de Ballet of the Opera House in Rome. Maestro David Garforth conducts the orchestra.
