Description

Janine will support student' s work with thematic theory classes on Art History of painting, from the Prehistoric Age to the Street Art, including with explanation of other techniques to realize art work, helping and supporting each student all along with their creations, in order to achieve the best individual result!

Janine creates a method of learning Art Work based on simple esthetic and technical concepts; learn how to approach portray, landscape in a realistic or abstract ways, through:

Various approaches to the Vision: observation and elaboration of the subject from several levels of perception

Study of the right media to represent the subject: oil painting/acrylic painting/pencils and markers/photography/decoupage/mixed media

Realization of the entire artwork, including the support to “frame“ it or “present“ it.

The Art Class is open to all students from young to senior, who should be provided with their own colours/canvas/materials and books.
