

FRANCESCO DE CARLO HISTORY OF ROME

A stand-up comedy show in english.

An amazing journey through the ruins of a glorious past and the most hilarious fun facts: from the foundation of the city to the fall of the Roman Empire, from the fight between Romulus and Remus to the legends about the seven kings, the life during Republic and the madness of the Emperors.

A story about all the habits, the technology and the words used by Romans still alive today. And then the fake news about the shewolf, the cancel culture on Nero, the shitstorm between Augustus and Mark Anthony, the popular trials of Cicero and the bodyshaming of Julius Caesar.

Ancient Rome is still a model for contemporary society and it faced the same issues we are facing in 21st century: civil rights and inclusivity, traffic jams and criminality, fast food and waste collection, pandemic and climate change. And obviously war.

History of Rome is the first resident show intended for tourists, students and expats in the Eternal City (and Italians who speak English), who want to discover which lessons we can still learn from a past of glory and decadence, imperial magnificence and everyday struggles. See you in (Ancient) Rome!
