On the 100th anniversary of Franco Zeffirelli's birth, the Rome Opera House chooses to remember the great master with one of his most beloved shows, Pagliacci by Ruggero Leoncavallo. The production, staged March 12-19, was created in 1992 specifically for the Rome Opera and has been revived ever since with great success. The extreme passions of love and hate in Leoncavallo's masterpiece are entrusted to the reading of Daniel Oren, who returns to conduct the orchestra of the Capitoline lyric after a 13-year absence. The direction by Franco Zeffirelli, who also signed the sets, is reprised by Stefano Trespidi.
