

Beijing Academy Chinese Classical Dance Company Celeste Armonia

At 8:30pm
February 23, 2026

A journey in search of perfection and beauty, an ode to the grace and heroism of an ancient culture, woven through spring propitiatory rites and fascinating references to Taoist cosmogony, in which all things return to the One and its cosmic harmony. A dance rooted in the origins of an authentic and extraordinarily poetic China, driven by an unceasing yearning to reach the Moon and its legends. An invitation to lose yourself in this "Celestial Harmony," where movement becomes storytelling and the East becomes tangible in all its splendor.
