Pennisi Studio Legale is a boutique law firm founded by Fabio Pennisi in 2007.

We provide legal advisory and representation services to businesses, organizations and individuals.

Our main areas of practice are civil litigation, alternative dispute resolution, industrial and intellectual property, sports law and criminal cyber law.

Since 2008, we have operated a legal helpdesk for the Rome office of an international organization, providing legal advice and assistance to the office as well as to diplomatic missions and their staff. Since 2015, we have performed debt recovery services for a national copyright collecting society.

At the Pennisi Law Firm, we believe in continuing professional development, timely services and constant communication with our clients. Our values allow us to deliver quality, cost-effective legal services.

Fabio Pennisi, Lawyer

Fabio graduated in Law from the Sapienza University of Rome, Italy, after which he took a course in Legal English at the University of Cambridge, UK. He is qualified to plead before Italy's higher courts and Supreme Court.

Prior to founding the firm in 2007, Fabio gained considerable experience at Tonucci & Partners in Rome.

He advises individuals, businesses, organizations (both national and international) and sports federations on matters concerning civil law, sports law, criminal cyber law and the protection of intellectual and industrial property rights, providing his clients with legal representation in court and arbitration proceedings (including international arbitration proceedings).

He has been regularly advising companies and national sports federations. He regularly participates in conferences and is a lecturer in post university courses, including on criminal cyber law and sports law. He speaks English fluently.

Monica Martino, Lawyer

Monica graduated in Law from the Sapienza University of Rome, Italy, and is a member of the Rome Bar.

Before joining the firm, she did an internship at a UN agency in Vienna.

She provides individuals, companies and international bodies with legal advice and assistance in the fields of civil law, family law, condominium law, consumer protection, immigration and citizenship law. She speaks English fluently.
